

In order to clarify this for European customers, I have included extracts from the Navionics XL3 catalogue. From the diagram below and the associated list of XL3 areas, it should be much easier for the customer to understand what file they need to select for any given area.

Diagram of Latest Navionics XL3 Areas

NOTE: These are the latest Platinum+ XL3 areas which may have slightly changed in geographical coverage compared to older Gold and Platinum XL3 areas, but in nearly all cases the coverage will be the same or slightly smaller areas.
